About Holistic Health Practitioners of Eastern North Carolina

The Holistic Health Practitioners of Eastern North Carolina (HHP of ENC) are excited about the evolution of health care for the residents of Pitt County and the surrounding area. We believe that by organizing, setting goals, and working together, we can bridge the sometimes large distance between the traditional medical establishment and the alternatives we have to offer. By maintaining a network of information, sharing ideas, and providing a professional organization that can interface with the community, the group hopes to make a positive difference in the lives of Eastern North Carolinians.

Our mission is to increase community awareness of holistic health care options, promoting wellness and balance, both individually and collectively. We hold monthly meetings, open to practitioners and general public.
